

New Perspectives on Lifespan Inequality

Thursday, January 21st 2021

16:00–19:00 Israel Time | 15:00–18:00 CET | 9:00–12:00 EST

16:00 – 16:10

Welcome

ISAAC SASSON

16:10 – 17:20

Conceptualizing and measuring lifespan inequality Moderator: JOSÉ MANUEL ABURTO

Keynote: Lifespan inequality is at best a weak signal of real inequality, and why that is so. HAL CASWELL

Reflections on relative measures of inequality. ALYSON VAN RAALTE

On the measurement of healthy lifespan inequality. IÑAKI PERMANYER

17:20 – 17:30

Break

17:30 – 18:30

New frontiers in research on lifespan inequality Moderator: VIRGINIA ZARULLI

The landscape of primate longevity. FERNANDO COLCHERO

Mortality inequalities and the impairment paradox in later life. MICHAL ENGELMAN

State-level trends in lifespan variability in the United States, 1960–2014. DUSTIN BROWN

18:30 – 19:00

Open discussion and closing remarks